

THE DAILY APPEAL.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 26, 1857.

We are again indebted to Adams Express company for late papers.

See the advertisement of a lost gold watch in another column, for which Messrs. NORMAN & CURRIE will pay a liberal reward.

THOMAS.—Mr. ASHLEY HOFFMAN, of the firm of GRIESMAN & HOFFMAN, sends our thanks for late New York papers.

We are indebted to Maj. REEDMAN, Agent of the New Orleans and Cairo mail, for his extensive account of the arrival of the mail of October, Mrs. BROWN will give him a general reward.

JEWELRY.—Mr. THOMAS J. HARRIS has opened at the store room of G. B. LEONARD extensive account of the arrival of the mail of October, Mrs. BROWN will give him a general reward.

FIRE.—Two fires occurred on Saturday night. The first was an unoccupied building on Madison street, near the number 100 of Moore, WHIPPLE, MCCULLY & CO., located in the rear of the building, and the second, a house on New Orleans street, the latter occurring after the arrival of the cars at 10 o'clock.

The first fire, which did not do much damage, was very light and soon over. Yesterday evening a fire took place at what may be called a house. There were very few arrivals and departures, and freight scarce.

For NEW ORLEANS.—The favorite among the traveling public, the fine steamer Imperial, after laying at the foot of Adams street when the mail arrived, had a long and tedious wait, and, at last, at 10 o'clock, was ready to leave. We have had a few arrivals and departures, and freight scarce.

Several vessels had been reported with great delay, and we have had a few arrivals and departures, and freight scarce.
